
meeting ground is...

community of faith...

- a deep commitment to doing what faith requires
- in work & word, sharing the good news of the beloved community
- calling folks together to work for justice which brings peace partnership...

- with persons & families who have experienced homelessness
- with all persons and organizations who want to help end homelessness
- with churches and faith communities of many denominations doing mission...

- with youth volunteer mission groups
- with and among other communities of faith
- through providing persons experiencing homelessness with housing, community, and tangible means to a new life
- calling folks together in the work of community building & hospitality hospitality, friendship, and new life...

- emergency & transitional housing for homeless families, women, & men
- “a place to call home” for many who have been homeless
- the warmth of community, meals, fellowship, and the means of empowerment to end homelessness in individual lives and in our world

